The event was held under the high patronage of the President of the European Parliament Prof. Jerzy Buzek.

"Check and mate! It takes a heartbeat to win or lose. These are the rules of the game. You win today and you lose tomorrow and you move on. It is the same in life, isn't it? Success and failure follow each other permanently as you go on with your life. That is what chess teaches us – surmount your difficulties and keep on. Chess is a powerful tool for developing thinking and memory in children. It teaches children to think analytically, logically and on at multiple levels. It educates them to make their own decisions and to be responsible for those decisions consequences.

These are the qualities that would come in handy to anyone no matter who they are or where they are in their lives – no matter of religion, nationality and race. Research shows that children who have been exposed to chess at early age achieve better results in school not only in math-related subjects, but across outside the board.”-said Mr. Danailov in his speech.

CHESS IN SCHOOL-AN ESSENTIAL PART OF THE ELECTORAL PROGRAM OF MR. SILVIO DANAILOV AND HIS TEAM

Chess in School project was an essential part of the Electoral program of Mr. Silvio Danailov and his team.

They wrote in the document: “CHESS AS...EDUCATIONAL TOOL

We are aware of the fact that the base for the uppermost chess is created among young people. Because of this, chess in schools is the notion to be found in every program and wish of ours. Introducing chess to the schools in the majority of the European countries is also the part of our program, because We know how to do it. Our team consists of people who already succeeded to do it in their own countries.

We will offer our personal experiences, role models, programs, textbooks, etc. to all federations which want to decisively take part in the action “Chess in Schools”.

European Chess Union will create the special team which will coach the potential and existing chess teachers and pedagogues all around Europe, since it is the foundation of for the successful implementation of the program.”

CHES AS ... A PRODUCT

"To sell chess as a product" is perhaps the biggest challenge for our team. We know that the starting condition is to make chess a product. Our results in the area of business hitherto give us the right to try.

We intend to approach companies from "compatible" industries: ICT (information and communication technology), banks/financial services, etc.

There is one obstruction on this way which European Chess Union, in cooperation with FIDE, will try to overcome – the matter of the intellectual property and transmission/broadcasts rights.

As the result of this, we are assured that, in a very short term, we will be able to offer to the chess public the commercial project which will make chess the desired product for the first time in history.

CHES AS ... OLYMPIC SPORT

We know that more than a half of the national chess federations which are members of the European Chess Union are also full right members of the National Olympic committees in their countries.

By using their experiences, we will provide the support to all European national federations which are co-joined members or are not members at all of the national Olympic Committees, to become ones. This is the only way in which we can manage to achieve our goal: chess as the Olympic sport.

CHES AS ... EDUCATIONAL TOOL

We are aware of the fact that the base for the uppermost chess is created among young people. Because of this, chess in schools is the notion to be found in every program and wish of ours. Introducing chess to the schools in the majority of the European countries is also the part of our program, because We know how to do it. Our team consists of people who already succeeded to do it in their own countries.

We will offer our personal experiences, role models, programs, textbooks, etc. to all federations which want to decisively take part in the action "Chess in Schools".

European Chess Union will create the special team which will coach the potential and existing chess teachers and pedagogues all around Europe, since it is the foundation for the successful implementation of the program.
